

Vow of Purity

Above all else, guard your heart, for it is the wellspring of life.

Proverbs 4:23

Flee the evil desires of youth, and pursue righteousness, faith, love and peace, along with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.

2 Timothy 2:22

I promise to God, myself, my family, my friends, my future mate, and my future children, to live a lifetime of purity, to keep my mind, my heart and body morally clean and pure so that when I enter the marriage covenant, I will be able to give myself with a completely clean conscience to my mate. The purity ring I wear will remind me daily of the promise that I am keeping.

Most of all, my commitment to a lifetime of purity is all for God's glory in my life.

My prayer

Lord, more than anything in this world I want an intimate, pure relationship with You. I want to glorify You in every aspect of my life. Use this commitment to underscore my spiritual relationship with You. I am the bride. You are the Groom. Before I can seek to be pure, I must be pure before You. Thank You, Father that purity is attainable through the gift of Jesus on the cross. Teach me daily what it means to bring into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ. This is something I cannot do without You. So I claim You as my Lord and my Guide. I will trust my parents and my family as they fulfill the responsibility you gave them in my life to help me guard my heart until that day I enter into a biblical relationship of marriage. In the pure name of Christ I pray. Amen."
